- Ask others about their likes and preferences.
- Describe a person who is heroic & explain why a person has heroic qualities

Stage 2: Assessment Evidence

Integrated Performance Task:

You are going to be interviewed about your hero by a Spanish Teen Magazine called Okapi. Prepare a graphic that you can use to cover information about your hero. You may use as many images as you would like, but no text. Be prepared to talk about your hero’s origin, age, birthdate, what s/he is like, what are her/his preferences. You will also explain why s/he is your hero.

Interpersonal Speaking -
Interview teens about their hero. Fill out the GO. You will use these notes in your Presentational Writing. (GO will include: De donde es? Como se llama? Como es? Cuando es su cumpleanos?, Que le interesa? Que le importa? Por que es tu héroe? )

Presentational Writing - (Letter to your hero)

Okapi, the Spanish Teen Magazine, was so moved by your interview, that they have decided to coordinate a face-to-face encounter with your hero. Before they can do this, the magazine wants you to write a letter to your hero introducing yourself and including information about your origin, birthdate, what you are like, and what are your preferences. Include why you consider this person to be your hero.

Other evidence:

(quizzes, tests, academic prompts, self-assessments, etc.
note – these are usually included where appropriate in Stage 3 as well)

- Vocabulary Quizzes
- Practice writing prompt
- Unit Reflection

Stage 3: Learning Activities

(Steps taken to get students to answer Stage 1 questions and complete performance task)

Day 1 -

Objective: Describe others

- Hook: Video about everyday heroes. https://youtu.be/M1C1KyqY3iw (Short video from Coca-cola with people helping each other)

    6. Él/ ella tiene
    7. ojos claros/ azules/verdes/cafes
    8. pelo largo/corto
    9. ¿Cuándo es su cumpleaños?
    10. Es el ____ de ______
- Brain Break - (For examples, go to http://brainbreaks.blogspot.com/)
- Practice with the vocabulary and answer questions in your cuaderno. Look at infographic about Nelson Mandela in Spanish (http://4.bp.blogspot.com/-qFEPkI35aGA/UHEFOeXbl5I/AAAAAAAHE/h3S6DM-s6Co/s1600/MANDELA.jpg)
  - ¿Cómo se llama?, ¿De dónde es?, ¿Cuándo es su cumpleaños?, ¿Cuántos años tiene?, ¿Él tiene ojos
Day 2 -
Objective: Describe others’ physical traits.

- Opening: Share out responses from yesterday’s closing (How would you describe a hero?)
- Add definition of “HEROE” in Spanish to interactive notebook: Persona ilustre y famosa por sus hazañas o virtudes (Real Academia Española)
  - Turn to your partner, do you agree with the definition of a hero?
  - Did any of the descriptions for a hero that you wrote yesterday match up with the definition of a hero?
- Information Gap Activity. Speaking practice with vocabulary. - Put students in pairs. Give each pair a chart which contains information about different influential people. Students interview each other about the heroes using the questions from Vocabulary Set #1. They will use the responses to fill in the missing information on their chart.
- Writing Practice - Answer “Diario” questions in cuaderno (a spiral notebook or journal)
  - Diario #1
    1. ¿Cómo se llama tu mejor amigo/a?
    2. ¿De dónde es?
    3. ¿Cuántos años tiene?
- Closing: What are heroic qualities?

Day 3 -

- Follow up: Writing prompt. ¿Quién es tu héroe? ¿Cómo es? ¿Qué le encanta?
- Closing - Share your writing prompt responses with a partner.

Day 8 -
Objectives: Describe others and their likes or preferences. Ask others about their likes and preferences. Explain why a person has heroic/idolic qualities
• Opening: Review chart responses with a partner for the Quien es? Matchup Activity. Did you agree on: ¿Es un héroe?

• Slap Card Game:
  o Every group will have sets of cards with vocab words from this whole unit
  o Teachers will call out a vocab word in English
  o Groups of 3 → roles rotate every round!
    ■ 1 observer → keeps score on whiteboard
    ■ 2 “slappers” → first person to SLAP the card with that Spanish word on it will get 1 point;
  o Then use the word correctly in a complete sentence for 2 additional points.
  o If you don’t think your partner used the word correctly, you can raise your hand and say, “I contest!” A teacher will come listen to the sentence to determine the point.

• Keep the conversation going - review strategies for when the conversation gets stuck.
  o (Can you repeat that? I don’t understand. Can I have more information? Can you ask another way?)
  o Practice re-wording questions to get across same meaning (i.e. What are you like? Are you outgoing or shy?)

• Diario #4 - rephrase & rewrite the following questions in Spanish
  o ¿De dónde es tu héroe?
  o ¿Cómo es tu héroe?
  o ¿Le encanta jugar deportes?

• Closing: What would you say if you did not understand a question in a conversation?

Day 9 -
Objectives: Describe others and their likes or preferences. Ask others about their likes and preferences.

• Opening: What are the key parts of a letter or an email you are writing to someone?
• Show samples of emails in Spanish. What do you notice? (address, greeting, good-bye, date, etc.)
  o http://recursostic.educacion.es/observatorio/web/images/upload/jmaa0052/12-JPG
• Video: https://youtu.be/mSyFp02-fmA
  o Answer the following questions in your cuaderno
    ■ ¿Cómo es él?
    ■ ¿Es un heroe? ¿Por que?
• Practice email writing format (introduction, date, good-bye). Write an email to a new Spanish speaking student from Panama. Make sure to introduce yourself and ask them a few questions to get to know him/her.
• Closing: Share your email with a partner.

Day 10 -
Objectives: Describe others and their likes or preferences. Ask others about their likes and preferences. Explain why a person has heroic/idolic qualities

• Opening: What are the key parts to an email?
• Vocabulary Quiz
• Song of the week: Antonio Orozco - Mi Héroe. https://youtu.be/chm79IPVekU. Students will write three sentences describing the song and share with a partner.

● Closing: What other vocabulary do you need to describe your hero?

Day 11 -
Objectives: Describe others and their likes or preferences. Ask others about their likes and preferences. Explain why a person has heroic/idolic qualities

● Opening: Review any vocabulary that students requested to describe their hero. This can be done by creating a class list to share. These are self-selected words. They will not be used on assessments.

● Introduce Interpersonal Speaking PBA.
  ○ You are going to be interviewed about your hero by a Spanish Teen Magazine called Okapi. Prepare a graphic that you can use to cover information about your hero. You may use as many images as you would like, but no text. Be prepared to talk about your hero’s origin, age, birthdate, what s/he is like, what are her/his preferences. You will also explain why s/he is your hero.
    ■ Option 1 - Create a poster with images of your hero
    ■ Option 2 - Use a digital poster of your hero, such as www.glogster.com or PicCollage App.
    ■ Option 3 - Student proposes a media format for the presentation to be approved by the teacher.
  ○ Remember, you may not write any words on your presentation, except for the name of your hero. You may have as many images as you need. Choose them wisely.
  ○ Begin filling out Graphic Organizer and designing presentation poster.
  ○ Reminders: You will not be reading any information off of your graphic organizer. It must be memorized.

Day 12 -
● Continue work on posters and presentations.

Day 13 -
● Review Rubric Expectations:

● Review Scenario for Interpersonal Speaking:
  ○ You are representing the Okapi Spanish Teen Magazine as a interviewer. Choose three teens in your class to interview in Spanish about their hero. Fill out your graphic organizer with their information.

● Review Graphic Organizer

● Students Turn in GO at end of class.

Day 14 -
● Complete Presentational Writing
  ○ Okapi, the Spanish Teen Magazine, was so moved by your interview, that they have decided to coordinate a face-to-face encounter with your hero. Before they can do this, the magazine wants you to write a letter to your hero introducing yourself and including information about your origin, birthdate, what you are like, and what are your preferences. Include why you consider this person to be your hero.

• Unit Reflection
  ○ What are you most proud of in this unit?
  ○ Where do you think that you could improve your Spanish skills?
  ○ If you could create a hashtag for this unit in Spanish, what would it be?
