Search each of the following sources for the term you chose in Part II. nb Alternate spellings.

- Wikipedia
- Oxford Art Online [via LibGuides]
- ArtStor [via LibGuides]
- JSTOR
- L’Année Philologique [via LibGuides]
- http://www.beazley.ox.ac.uk/pottery/default.htm (for terms referring to shape, painter, potter)
- If one of your terms refers to a mythological character or story, T. Gantz, Early Greek Myth: A Guide to Literary and Artistic Sources, Johns Hopkins 1993 [on Reserve] and the Lexicon Iconographicum Mythologiae Classicae (LIMC) [Reference].
- Google

For each search, briefly describe what kind of information that search yields. For example: Does it yield books, articles, websites, other media? How many? Are they diverse?

Now that you have done a preliminary search through these various sources, which resource or combination of resources will you turn to first for research on your chosen term? Briefly explain your answer.

Turn in your descriptions and discussion.
