Pre-Assessment

Read the following and answer the questions. Use complete sentences.

1. Katherine is a fifth grader who has had the same group of friends since kindergarten and likes to choose who she works with in class. Her teacher gives her class a group assignment. Katherine tells the other students that she doesn't want to work with them. Is this kind or right? What could she say instead?

2. Bob is playing at recess when he notices Ronald, a new boy in his class, being bullied and teased because he is so much smaller than the others in class and always reading. What could Bob do?

3. List some words to describe you. What makes you similar and different than your friends?
