

Action Comic Rubric (Group Project)

	Approaching (4 points)	Meeting (7 points)	Exceeding (10 points)
Text	Comic is missing dialogue or dialogue does not make sense.	Most of the dialogue in the comic is realistic and represents how students speak.	Dialogue in the comic is realistic. It represents how students talk and respond to each other. The dialogue helps to solve the problem.
Problem and Solution	The comic may identify the conflict but is missing a solution to the conflict.	The comic identifies the conflict and begins to solve the conflict.	The comic clearly identifies the conflict and there is a clear solution to the conflict.
Illustrations	Illustrations are messy and hard to understand.	Illustrations in the comic are kind of detailed and colorful.	Illustrations in the comic are detailed and colorful. The student did his or her best work.
Overall appearance	The comic is not neat. Handwriting is sloppy and little or no spelling and grammar is correct.	Pictures and handwriting in the comic are neat, and most of the spelling and grammar are correct.	The comic is neat and spelling and grammar are correct, making the comic easy to follow. Handwriting is neat.

Total Points: _____/40

Checklist

Did we include dialogue that make sense?
Did we identify the conflict?
Did we identify a clear solution to the conflict?
Did we include detailed and colorful illustrations?
Is our handwriting neat?
Did we edit our writing for correct spelling and grammar?

When making your comic, think about:

Examples of specific conflicts you've gotten in

What causes conflict

What happens during this conflict

How do you feel in conflict

What could we do to change the outcome