

Name: _____

Timeline Rubric

	Approaching (5 points)	Meeting (8 points)	Exceeding (10 points)
Events	The student only includes one-two events from his or her life.	The student includes three-four events from his or her life.	The student includes at least five events from his or her life.
Timeline Order	The events in the timeline are out of order. Student does not show an understanding that events in a timeline need to be in chronological order.	Most of the events in the timeline are in order.	All events in the timeline are in order. The student shows understanding that events in a timeline are in chronological order.
Presentation	The student's timeline is not neat or organized at all. The viewer cannot follow the timeline.	The viewer can follow the timeline but timeline could be neater or better organized.	The student's timeline is very neat and organized. The viewer can easily follow the timeline.
Title	The student does not include a title in his or her timeline.	The student includes a title but does not include his or her name.	The student includes a title for his or her timeline. Title includes the student's name.

Total Points: ___/40

Timeline Checklists for Students

Did I include at least five important events from my life in my timeline?
Are the events in my timeline in chronological order?
Do I have a title for my timeline? Does it include my name?
Is my timeline neat? Is it easy to follow?

Did I include at least five important events from my life in my timeline?
Are the events in my timeline in chronological order?
Do I have a title for my timeline? Does it include my name?
Is my timeline neat? Is it easy to follow?

Did I include at least five important events from my life in my timeline?
Are the events in my timeline in chronological order?
Do I have a title for my timeline? Does it include my name?
Is my timeline neat? Is it easy to follow?

Did I include at least five important events from my life in my timeline?
Are the events in my timeline in chronological order?
Do I have a title for my timeline? Does it include my name?
Is my timeline neat? Is it easy to follow?	