

"A work of art that did not begin in emotion is not art." -Paul Cezanne

Consider the above quote by the post-impressionist painter Paul Cezanne. Can art (or poetry, or even people) exist without emotion? Why are emotions so important, and why is it important to be able to express yourself and your emotions?

"A work of art that did not begin in emotion is not art." -Paul Cezanne

Consider the above quote by the post-impressionist painter Paul Cezanne. Can art (or poetry, or even people) exist without emotion? Why are emotions so important, and why is it important to be able to express yourself and your emotions?

"A work of art that did not begin in emotion is not art." -Paul Cezanne

Consider the above quote by the post-impressionist painter Paul Cezanne. Can art (or poetry, or even people) exist without emotion? Why are emotions so important, and why is it important to be able to express yourself and your emotions?

"A work of art that did not begin in emotion is not art." -Paul Cezanne

Consider the above quote by the post-impressionist painter Paul Cezanne. Can art (or poetry, or even people) exist without emotion? Why are emotions so important, and why is it important to be able to express yourself and your emotions?