Brief Summary of Unit (Including curricular context and unit goals):

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

OBJECTIVE: (Day 1)

*Students will be able to describe different families and family members through oral and written application of tener, possessive adjectives and family vocabulary.*

PROCEDURES:

Introduction/Warm-Up:
Introduce EQs as pre-assessment questions for students to answer in their journals.

- How do social, economic, and cultural values impact family relationships, values and traditions?
- What role does family play in molding and influencing an individual?

Students will identify different family members in the teacher’s family tree as presented on the overhead. An alternative hook introduction to the Family unit is to bring pictures and talk about some famous brothers and sisters, mothers and fathers, sons and daughters, that the students might know: (e.g.: Khloe and Kim Kardashian, Mary Kate and Ashley Olsen, Michael Brandy and Ray J)

TNM:
Teach the possessive adjectives using graphic organizer and ps4 scenario and other real life applications. Re-teach and review concepts that are unclear.

GP:
Students will begin a rough draft of their written description of the teacher’s family based on the family tree presented to them and have them assessed by a partner.

IP:
As independent practice and assessment students will... complete their written description. Students will begin to create a family tree with ten sentence description on group poster board including all group members and any celebrity or interesting people to design their familia loca.

Assessment/ Evaluation & Feedback:
Grade the IP and grade with feedback to be returned.

OBJECTIVE: (Day 2)

Students will be able to describe families and ask and talk about celebrations and parties through oral and written application of tener, possessive adjectives, family and other relevant vocabulary and grammar (including number and gender agreement).

PROCEDURES:
Introduction/ Warm-Up:
A) Students will quickly complete group familia loca and 10 sentence description.
B) Students will complete comprehends section and also prepare a family tree (page 241) to be presented to the class. Students will copy chart of blank family tree and customize it for their own family.

TNM:
Teach students additional vocabulary for in-laws and nieces/nephews as well and grandchildren.

GP:
A) Students will provide gallery walk and evaluations of famila loca activity.
B) Students will begin a rough draft of their family tree with descriptions (using adjectives and the verbs ser and tener). This is a brainstorming opportunity to also check for understanding and share ideas.

IP:
As independent practice and assessment students will complete a family tree with descriptions in preparation for their performance assessment project.

Assessment/ Evaluation & Feedback:
Grade the IP and grade with feedback to be returned so that students can complete electronically in a creative presentational format.

OBJECTIVE: (Day 3)

Students will be able to describe and identify various cultural celebrations and family members.

PROCEDURES:
Warm-Up:
In response to the EQ “How do social, economic, and cultural values impact family relationships, values and traditions?” students will read and translate to the best of their ability p. 238-239 about La Quinceanera.

Students will brainstorm K in KWL graphic organizer, knowledge already known about the cultural or grammar/vocabulary information related to the topic of family.

Teaching New Material:
Students will be taught the cultural significance of the quinceanera celebration and also the meaning of the Adelante lectura they translated.

Teach students the formation of family constructs using the Spanish vocabulary. Also re-teach as necessary the gender and number agreement in sentences.

Guided Practice:
As a class students will share personal observations or experiences with traditions and similar cultural celebrations.

Students will complete ir and jugar review using power points.

Independent Practice:
Students will complete comprendes section reviewed in class and also prepare a family tree (page 241) to be presented to the class.

Students will be graded on Exit Slip to write full name or nombre completo and discuss as formative assessment.

EVALUATION:
Exit slip submitted at end of class.

Goals:
1) Students will be given various oral and written activities using additional vocabulary to describe family members in to demonstrate mastery of content and grammar (including the verbs ser and tener, as well as possessive adjectives and adjectives).
2) Students will also be given a performance assessment project to construct a family tree and describe various family members using the correct conjugations of tener and ser as well as vocabulary on family members, adjectives, and activities they like or do not like to do.
Students will have a cumulative review through the following Warm-Up activity.

1. State the meaning of the following verbs: Ser, Estar & Tener
2. When do you use Ser vs. Estar?
3. Translate these sentences.
   a) I am 15 years old (I have 15 years).
   b) She is kind and sociable.
   c) We are intelligent and talented.
   d) They like to run. They are sports-minded.

TNM:
Teach students the formation of family constructs using the Spanish vocabulary. Also teach the gender and number agreement in sentences.

GP:
Student will complete Ooops! Activity in pairs for page 2 of their Family Tree project.
In journals, students will title activity and list 8 errors (not content, but grammar and spelling errors) with page 2 of the teacher's project shown on overhead:

Yo soy la hijo de mis padres.
Soy Jamaica
Yo tenemos 45* anos.
Yo son deportisto y gracioso.
Te gusta practiar deportes.

IP:
Students will complete description of self done correctly and have it peer assessed by a partner on post-it.

Assessment/ Evaluation & Feedback:
Grade will be given for the project and students will be provided with feedback.

OBJECTIVE: (Day 5-6)
Students will be able to provide personality and physical descriptions (including facial features) of different people using various adjectives. Students will also practice stating their and others' origin (as well as possession with de and simple comparatives) while using ser in the appropriate context.

PROCEDURES:
Introduction/ Warm-Up:
Quickly review the correct conjugations and uses of the verb ser.

TNM:
Teach students the project expectations for the Ser Project to expand on the yo part of their family tree.

GP:
Allow students to complete 5 sentences for each of the five verb forms in pairs to begin practicing.

IP:
In response to the EQ “What role does family play in molding and influencing an individual?” students will work towards completing the project using pictures of themselves and their family in Windows Media Maker or Photo Story.

Assessment/Evaluation & Feedback:
Grade and provide feedback.
